

SHEILA AND LETTY SUSTRIN

Born and educated in Brooklyn, New York, Letty Sustrin, and her recently deceased twin sister, Sheila, decided at age five that they would become Elementary School Teachers when they grew up. Their dream came true and they taught side by side for 38 years in the Brentwood, N.Y. School District.

After retiring in 1998, they realized there was a void in their lives. They missed the interaction, and everyday involvement, with their students. As they always wanted to write books for children, they now began their “Life After Retirement” career as co-authors of a children’s humorous picture storybook series.

1. The Teacher Who Would Not Retire (2002)
2. The Teacher Who Would Not Retire Goes To Camp (2005)
3. The Teacher Who Would Not Retire Discovers A New Planet (2009)
4. The Teacher Who Would Not Retire Become A Movie Star (2012)
5. The Teacher Who Would Not Retire Loses Her Ballet Slippers (2014)

Letty Sustrin does presentations at schools, retiree and educator’s groups, bookstores, and Libraries on Long Island and throughout the Metropolitan Area. She like to feel that this series is helping to bridge the gap between youngsters and retirees. In memory of her sister, she will continue the series, and is now writing the sixth book.

Letty is a member of: SCBWI, LICWI, AAUW, and Retirees of Brentwood Schools, and is listed in ESBOCES, LISMA, N.Y. State PARP, Suffolk PTA, etcetera.
